Oakland Park, Florida 33311

To whom it may concern:

Max South Construction, Inc considers Wayne Group & Services, Inc. highly qualified to provide exceptional HVAC Services to our industry. Wayne and his staff exceeded their contractual obligations by assisting us and our projects design team to resolve constructability plan issues on a recently completed condominium project. Their professional problem solving abilities and commitment to work closely with our team throughout our construction process contributed to a successful project.

As Wayne states on his voice mail, "You made the right choice", we agree and recommend the Wayne Group for new HVAC installations and service.

Sincerely,

Rick Pitchman
President
